

CONVOY COMMUNITY DAYS

PRESENTS

Mark's Ark - It's Like Bringing A Zoo To You

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 25th , 2010
EDGEWOOD PARK, CONVOY OHIO
UNDER THE TENT @ 3:00 p.m.

Mark is an expert animal handler. His critter knowledge matched with humor and wit make for an exciting program!

Mark has over 20 years of professional animal care experience and handling encompassing management in retail pet stores within Indiana and Ohio and 10 years experience at the Fort Wayne Children's Zoo as a full time zoo keeper. Mark's formal educational background is from the Ohio State University School of Biology. His Experiences has led him to a career where he can teach other's about truly amazing animals that he brings to you!

Mark presents animals in a hands-on, friendly presentation with humor and taste and assures that all animals are safe and handled appropriately. Mark has a great sense of humor and looks the part of an animal handler in his safari clothes and wide-brimmed, outback style hat. A few of the critters in his menagerie include larger docile snakes, lizards, large tortoises, a hedgehog, some creepy-crawly giant pill bugs, and eight-inch millipedes; as well as toads, birds, and frogs.

Mark states that "kids seem to really enjoy all the animals, but particularly like Lance the hedgehog."

Mark's lively and humorous program last approximately one hour.